The screenshot shows a web browser window with the URL `localhost:8888/banking2/transfer1.jsp`. The page features a dark background with a glowing globe and the text "APANA - BANK ExtraOrdinary Service". A navigation bar includes links: NEW ACCOUNT, BALANCE, DEPOSIT, WITHDRAW, TRANSFER, CLOSE A/C, and ABOUT US. The main content area is divided into three sections: "Services" with links to javatpoint.com, javacstpoint.com, and javatpoint.com/forum.jsp; "TRANSFER FORM" with input fields for ACCOUNT NO (1), USER NAME (Rishi kumar), PASSWORD (), TARGET ACCOUNT NO (2), and AMOUNT (10000), along with Submit and CLEAR buttons; and a "Welcome" section with a photo of four people and a paragraph about web design templates.

The screenshot shows the same website after a successful transfer. The URL is `localhost:8888/banking2/transfer.jsp?accountno=1&username=Rishi+kumar&password=rishi&taccountno=2&amount=10000`. The "TRANSFER FORM" section is now empty. A new section titled "Accounts Info" has appeared, displaying the message: "the target account balance is 13000reduced balance is 10000". The navigation bar now includes a "Contact Us" link instead of "CLOSE A/C".
